

Child Sized Textured Poncho

I found this yarn when I was organizing my yarn stash. I found this yarn and thought what can I make that I haven't made yet? I then realized my oldest loves purple and my youngest loves pink. I thought to myself, a poncho they can share would be perfect.

Note: As I make my items I write the pattern down as I work up the item. I try my best to explain what I'm doing, but I am not perfect and I do make mistakes. If you have any questions, please let me know. I will do my best to answer.

*I suggest intermediate crocheter, this might be hard to understand for a beginner. I will try to make a video**

Size: This depends on how you like your Poncho to fit. This fits my 5 yr old who wears a size 6 and my 7 yr old that wears a size 8, but this will last for a few years.
