Revised: 01/12/2020 – It was brought to my attention that my count was off on my original pattern, so I redid the pattern. Not sure where I went wrong, but they were right. This time I left a hole opening on the top and it was more floppy (not sure why). I used a metal wreath to keep the front open

Materials:

- Size K Hook
- Tapestry Needle
- A 14” metal wreath frame from the Dollar store, I clipped the wreath in half, leaving 2 rounds in tact
- A toy to hang in the front (optional)
- Worsted Weight Yarn (I used 2 balls at once of Red Heart Giant, Lullaby Print), depending on your tension, you might need more or less

ST= Stitch
DC = Double Crochet
